TREASURER'S REPORT: John Moser reported a balance on hand of $8,143.00.

Motion was made (Mantini/Kensler) and passed to pay the following bills:

$ 350.00 + $20.00: to Judy Moyer for our 2006 website and domain

$ 350.00: to Barbara Mantini for 2006 show approvals

$ 80.00: to Diane Harrell for reimbursement for her Superior Awards dinner

All September show stall fees have been paid.

YOUTH CLUB REPORT: Ashley Nolasco reported the following election of officers:

President: Ashley Nolasco

Vice President: Mallory Linn

Secretary: Nichole Smith

Treasurer: Nalyn Hetzell

Photographer: Olivia Gleisner

Motion was made (Kinney/Mantini) and passed that GSPHC donate one stall for the Youth Club to raffle. The Youth Club will be holding a clinic on April 8, in Cumberland County. A trip to the Horse Expo in Maryland is planned. The Youth Club will be requiring a $5.00 Youth Club membership fee to indicate each member's commitment. This money will be utilized for postage, etc. for the club. It was noted that Youth Club members must be a member of GSPHC in order to receive GSPHC Year End awards. Marjorie requested the Youth Club submit a monthly financial report.

WEBSITE: Judy Moyer reported that the site is up and running.

SHOW COMMITTEE: Judy reported that all of the 2006 judges should be hired by the end of the week.

JERSEY BRED: Julie Bishop reported that the Year End money should be ready for pay out by the end of February.

CLASSIC FUTURITIES: Debbie Kinney distributed copies of the Futurity information.

OPEN FUTURITY: Debbie reminded the Club that this will be just for weanlings this year.

AWARDS BANQUET: Motion was made (Mantini/Kensler) and passed that Scotland Run Golf Club be booked for our December 2006 Brunch.

APHA RULE CHANGES: Any requested APHA rule changes must be sent to APHA by January 15. The form for this is posted on the website.

NJ EQUESTRIAN APPLICATION PROBLEM: This activity was held at the N.J. Farm Bureau dinner. Several pieces of correspondence were read and discussed. A check list for future contestants to receive prior to the contest will be formulated in order to help eliminate the problems which arose this year. Motion was made (Bishop/Michalenko) and passed that in the future applications will be mailed to the GSPHC Equine Advisory Board delegate, Barbara Mantini. It was noted that both Ashley Nolasco and Brandi Bleifuss, past GSPHC Equestrian representatives, encountered similar problems.

APHA CORRESPONDENCE: Marjorie Moser reported that APHA had requested information in regards to our Club's charitable donations over the years. This information was forwarded to APHA and will be published by them in the future.

GLOUCESTER COUNTY PROPOSED HORSE FACILITY: Marjorie Moser attended their recent planning meeting and reported the following:

- The site is comprised of 220 acres
- There will be 2 barns with 240 stalls
- Some stalls will be for boarders
- There will be 2 outdoor rings, one dressage ring, 2 schooling rings, and one covered pen
- All RV spots will be "pull throughs"
- There will be outside wash stalls

SUNSHINE CLUB 50/50: The 50/50 was won tonight by Jack Bishop.

The meeting was adjourned at 9:40 PM with the next regular meeting date set for February 6, 2006, at the Elmer Diner.

Respectfully submitted,
Dorothy Quirk
